RANZCP 2018
Session: Concurrent 4D
Chair: Shuichi Suetani
Room: Marlborough Room 1
Stream: Partnering Academia and Psychiatry
Time: 1030-1230

Speakers: Hannah Kim, Tony Muller, Izaak Lim, Sarah Brick, Shuichi Suetani

Presentation title: Power, Paranoia and Partnership

Biographies: Dr Shuichi Suetani is a psychiatry registrar at Logan Hospital in Brisbane. He completed his medical degree with distinction in psychological medicine from University of Otago in Dunedin, New Zealand, before moving to Adelaide to start his medical career. Dr Suetani moved to Brisbane in 2015 to commence a two year Psychiatry Registrar Research Fellowship under supervision of Professor John McGrath and Associate Professor James Scott. He is currently undertaking a PhD exploring physical activity in people with mental disorders.

Speaker: Rob Selzer

Presentation title: Physician Don’t Examine Thyself.

Biography: Rob has a long and varied history in medical education. As the Director of MBBS Programs at Monash University at Alfred Health for many years he oversaw all aspects of the clinical teaching of medical students across the breadth of medicine, psychiatry and surgery. Actively involved in psychiatry registrar and student education, Rob enjoys teaching, with an exam focus in particular. He is the co-author of a psychiatry handbook for medical students and of other assorted papers on medical education.

Speaker: Philip Ward

Presentation title: Training Mental Health Professionals in Low-Resource Settings to Deliver Lifestyle Interventions for People with Mental Illness: Butabika Hospital, Uganda Pilot Project

Biography: Professor Ward is the Director of the Schizophrenia Research Unit, based at Liverpool Hospital, a part of South Western Sydney Local Health District (SWSLHD). He also serves as Postgraduate Research Coordinator for the School of Psychiatry, UNSW. He also provides expert research and evaluation oversight for the Keeping the Body in Mind Program, based in South Eastern Sydney Local Health District (SESLHD).